Seneschal's Report

Greetings All!

March is fast approaching and Gulf War along with it! Sadly, we are unable to attend this year but don't let that stop you from going! Next year we are planning a large group to go so be prepared and save your pennies and holiday time!

I would like to encourage everyone to keep their memberships from expiring. Our group's health is partly dependent on those memberships! If you are having trouble keeping your membership financially, contact me and lets see what we can do!

I want to congratulate our Reeve, Mike, on a job well done! I am told that we were the first group to have our end of the year turned in! VIVAT Mike!

Those of you not attending meetings...please make that extra effort to come! It's a dinner and a meeting so it is quite nice to sit down once a month and eat with our friends while we take care of business. It would be better if more members could make though!

I want to take this time to thank our current slate of officers. If you haven't thanked one - take the time now to send out an email. The officers are reporting on time and doing a great job....thanks so much!

In Service,
Meghann der Krieger

Arts and Sciences

Greetings Tir Medoin!

Our Guild Night is gearing up again, we will be doing armor making, finishing up our cordial glass and charter painting on the last Friday of February. I entered the A&S competition at Candlemas with my Anglo-Saxon necklace. Members of our group are getting into Mongolian style archery equipment, cordials, making beer, charter painting, norse wire knitting, and medieval cooking, just to name a few new interests.

In Service,
Tressa de Crauford

Greetings all,

After a discussion with the other officers, we'll be editing out contact information that I usually have on the newsletter, so the online publication will be different from the one that's passed out in meetings. We're doing for safety reasons and to insure that outsiders who happen to find the Tir Medoin site can't contact officers to find out information on the members of the Shire for non-SCA reasons. This has actually happened before with one of my predecessors. If you need any contact information, feel free to contact me or see the Black Star.

I will see everyone at Guild Night on the 29th at the Der Kriegers, and safe journey to the those who will be making the journey to Gulf Wars this year.

VIVAT ANSTEORRA!
